potentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union (Guadalajara, 2010) has adopted the following amendments to the said Constitution:

CHAPTER V

OTHER PROVISIONS CONCERNING THE FUNCTIONING OF THE UNION

Article 28

Finances of the Union

MOD 165 PP-98 5) When choosing its class of contribution, a Member State shall not reduce it by more than 15 per cent of the number of units chosen by the Member State for the period preceding the reduction, rounding down to the nearest lower number of units in the scale, for contributions of three or more units; or by more than one class of contribution, for contributions below three units. The Council shall indicate to it the manner in which the reduction shall be gradually implemented over the period between plenipotentiary conferences. However, under exceptional circumstances such as natural disasters necessitating international aid programmes, the Plenipotentiary Conference may authorize a greater reduction in the number of contributory units when so requested by a Member State which has established that it can no longer maintain its contribution at the class originally chosen.

PART II

DATE OF ENTRY INTO FORCE

The amendments contained in the present instrument shall, as a whole and in the form of one single instrument, enter into force on 1 January 2012 between Member States being at that time parties to the Constitution and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), and having deposited before that date their instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval of, or accession to, the present amending instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the original of the present instrument amending the Constitution of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002) and by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006).

For the Argentine Republic:

The Argentine Republic recalls the reservation it made when ratifying the Constitution and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union, signed in the city of Geneva, Switzerland, on 22 December 1992, and reaffirms its sovereignty over the Malvinas Islands, the South Georgia Islands, the South Sandwich Islands and the Argentine Antarctic, which form an integral part of its national territory.

It further recalls that, in relation to the “Question of the Malvinas Islands”, the United Nations General Assembly adopted resolutions 2065 (XX), 3160 (XXVIII), 31/49, 37/9, 38/12, 39/6, 40/21, 41/40, 42/19 and 43/25, recognizing the existence of a dispute over sovereignty and requesting the Governments of the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to resume negotiations aimed at resolving that dispute.

The Argentine Republic further points out that the United Nations Special Committee on Decolonization has made repeated pronouncements along the same lines, most recently through the resolution adopted on 24 June 2010, and that the General Assembly of the Organization of American States adopted a similarly worded pronouncement on the question on 8 June 2010.

For Tunisia:

In signing the Final Acts of the eighteenth Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union (Guadalajara, 2010), the Tunisian delegation declares that the Government of the Tunisian Republic reserves the right:

1. to take any measure it considers necessary to protect its interests should any member of the Union fail in any way to comply with the provisions of the Constitution and/or the Convention of the Union (Guadalajara, 2010), on the one hand, or, on the other hand, should reservations made or actions taken by other Governments jeopardize the proper functioning of its telecommunication services or lead to an increase in the share it is to contribute towards defraying the expenses of the Union;

2. to reject any provision of the said Constitution and Convention or of the annexes and protocols thereto which might directly or indirectly affect the sovereignty of the Tunisian Republic or be contrary to its constitution or laws;

3. to make any other additional declaration(s) or reservation(s) to the Final Acts of the Conference (Guadalajara, 2010) up to the date on which the respective instruments of ratification are deposited;

4. to request the application of Article 56 of the Constitution vis-à-vis any Member State in the event of a dispute between Tunisia and a Sector Member not under its authority but under the authority of the Member State concerned.

The signature of the Final Acts of the Conference (Guadalajara, 2010) by the Tunisian delegation shall not in any way represent implicit recognition of a member of the Union not recognized by the Government of the Tunisian Republic, or of all or parts of international agreements to which Tunisia has not expressly acceded.

For Cuba:

In signing the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union (Guadalajara, 2010), the delegation of the Republic of Cuba declares as follows:

- In the face of the continuing interventionist practice by the Government of the United States of America of directing radio and television transmissions towards Cuban territory for political and destabilizing purposes, in open violation of the provisions and principles that govern telecommunications throughout the world, especially those aimed at facilitating peaceful relations, international cooperation among peoples and economic and social development, and to the detriment of the normal operation and development of Cuba's own radiocommunication services, which are victims of the harmful interference produced by those emissions, the Cuban Administration reserves the right to take whatever measures it may deem necessary and appropriate.

- The consequences of any actions that the Cuban Administration might find itself obliged to take in defence of its national sovereignty on account of the underhand behaviour of the Government of the United States of America will be the sole responsibility of that Government.

- Cuba in no way recognizes the notification, registration or use of frequencies by the Government of the United States of America in that part of Cuban territory in the province of Guantánamo which the United States is occupying illegally by force, contrary to the express will of the people and the Government of Cuba, and which has become a centre for the arbitrary detention of prisoners in which one of the most abominable systematic mass violations of human rights of the modern era is being perpetrated.

– It reserves for its Government the right to take whatever measures it may consider necessary to protect its interests should any other Member State fail to comply in any way with the provisions of the Instruments (Guadalajara, 2010) amending the Constitution and Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conferences (Kyoto, 1994; Minneapolis, 1998; Marrakesh, 2002; and Antalya 2006), or with the Administrative Regulations, or should reservations by other Member States in any way jeopardize Cuba's telecommunication services or lead to an increase in its contribution towards defraying the expenses of the Union.

– It does not accept the Optional Protocol on the settlement of disputes with respect to the present Constitution, Convention and Administrative Regulations.

– It reserves for its Government the right to make any further declaration or reservation that may be necessary at the time of depositing its instrument of ratification of the amendments to the Constitution and Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010).

For the Arab Republic of Egypt:

In the name of God, most merciful, most compassionate.

The delegation of the Arab Republic of Egypt to the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union (Guadalajara, 2010), on the signing of the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), reserves for its Government the right:

1. to take any action or any measure that it may deem appropriate to safeguard its right and interests, should any other Member fail to comply with the provisions contained in the Final Acts (Guadalajara, 2010), or should any reservation by representatives of other States jeopardize telecommunication services or ICT services of the Arab Republic of Egypt, its national security or its full sovereign rights or lead to an increase in its contributory share in defraying the expenses of the International Telecommunication Union;

2. not to be bound by any provision of the Constitution or the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006), and the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010) which may directly or indirectly affect its sovereignty and be in contradiction with the constitution, laws or regulations of the Arab Republic of Egypt;

3. to make, under the Vienna Convention of the Law of Treaties of 1969 any other statements or reservations to the above-mentioned Final Acts adopted by the present conference (Guadalajara, 2010) until such time as the respective instrument of ratification has been deposited;

4. to apply Article 56 of the Constitution in case of a dispute between Egypt and any of the Sector Members of ITU; this is due to the lack of provisions in the Constitution and the Convention defining the relationship between a Member State and Sector Members that are not under its authority.

For the Republic of Uganda:

The delegation of the Republic of Uganda hereby declares on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Uganda that it:

1. reserves the right to take such action as it may consider necessary to protect its interests should any other country not observe the provisions of the Constitution and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), and any amendments made thereto by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), and/or any other instruments associated therewith;

2. will not accept any consequences resulting from any reservation made by any country, and reserves the right to take any action it deems fit.

For the United States of America, Canada and Australia:

The delegations from the above-mentioned States deeply deplore the approval by the 2010 Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union of [Corrigendum 1 to Document 16(Add.6)-E] concerning Lebanon. This Resolution is simply inappropriate for consideration in the ITU. This Resolution deals with political issues that should be dealt with in other political arenas. The Resolution is inconsistent with the purposes of the Union set forth in Article 1 of the ITU Constitution and its adoption is inconsistent with the cause of a just, lasting and comprehensive peace in the Middle East. We also note that the Resolution was only approved after two rounds of voting by a minority of the delegations present with the majority of delegations abstaining. The above-mentioned delegations therefore disassociate from the decision adopting this Resolution and from the Resolution.

For the United States of America:

1. The United States of America refers to the provisions on reservations of Article 32B of the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), and notes that, in considering the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), the United States of America may find it necessary to make additional reservations or declarations. Accordingly, the United States of America reserves the right to make additional reservations or declarations at the time of deposit of its instruments of ratification of the amendments to the Constitution and the Convention (Geneva, 1992) which are adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010).

The United States of America reiterates and incorporates by reference all reservations and declarations made at world administrative conferences and world radiocommunication conferences prior to signature of these Final Acts.

The United States of America does not, by signature to or by any subsequent ratification of the amendments to the Constitution and Convention adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), consent to be bound by the Administrative Regulations adopted prior to the date of signature of these Final Acts. Nor shall the United States of America be deemed to have consented to be bound by revisions of the Administrative Regulations, whether partial or complete, adopted subsequent to the date of signature of these Final Acts, without specific notification to the International Telecommunication Union of its consent to be bound.

2. The United States of America refers to its Statement 92 made at the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998) and states that it will interpret Resolution 99 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010) in accordance with relevant international agreements, including agreements between Israel and the Palestinians.

For Turkey:

In signing the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), the delegation of the Republic of Turkey:

1. reserves for its Government the right to take any action as it may consider necessary to safeguard its interests, should any Member State, in any way, fail to comply with the Constitution and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), and as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), and as further amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002), and as further amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006) and as further amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), or the annexes or protocols thereto, or should any reservation made by any Member State jeopardize the proper operation of its telecommunication services or lead to an increase in its contribution to defraying the expenses of the Union;

2. reserves for its Government the right, if necessary, to make further reservations to the present Final Acts;

3. declares on behalf of its Government that it accepts no consequences of any reservation which would lead to an increase in the share it contributes to defraying the expenses of the Union;

4. formally declares that reservations previously made with regard to the Constitution, Convention and Administrative Regulations of the Union shall prevail unless declared otherwise.

For Mexico:

The Mexican delegation, in signing the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union adopted in Guadalajara, Mexico, 2010, reserves for its Government the right:

1. to adopt and take whatever measures it considers appropriate to safeguard its sovereign decisions should any other Member State in any way fail to comply with or fail to apply the provisions contained in the basic texts of the Union, the Constitution and Convention of the International Telecommunication Union;

2. to express, in accordance with the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, further reservations to these Acts at any time it may deem appropriate between the date of signing of these Acts and the date of their ratification, in accordance with the procedures established in its domestic legislation;

3. not to consider itself bound by any provision of these Acts which restrict or are liable to restrict its right to express such reservations as it deems relevant;

4. to reject the establishment and application of any additional burden, including financial, over and above the contributory unit adopted by this conference and which may cause harm to the national interest;

5. further, the Government of Mexico maintains and reaffirms, as if they were repeated here in full, the reservations it made at the time of signing the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference (Geneva, 1992), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002) and the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006), the reservations it made upon the adoption and revision of the Administrative Regulations referred to in Article 4 of the Constitution of the International

Telecommunication Union; and all reservations made by it in respect of other treaties directly relating to telecommunications.

For the State of Israel:

1. The Government of the State of Israel hereby declares its right:

a) to take any action it deems necessary to protect its interests and to safeguard the operation of its telecommunication services, should they be affected by the decisions or resolutions of this conference or by the declarations or reservations made by other Member States;

b) to take any action to safeguard its interests should any Member State fail to comply with the requirements of the ITU Constitution and Convention (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Kyoto, 1994), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Minneapolis, 1998), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Marrakesh, 2002), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Antalya, 2006), the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), or the annexes and protocols attached thereto; or should declarations or reservations made by other Member States appear to be detrimental to the operation of its telecommunication services.

2. The Government of the State of Israel refers to ITU Resolution 99 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010) and states its position that the interpretation and application of this resolution by all concerned must be in accordance with and subject to any existing or future bilateral agreements or arrangements between Israel and the Palestinian side. Furthermore, Israel shall interpret and apply this resolution in accordance with and subject to applicable Israeli law.

3. The Government of the State of Israel refers to [Corrigendum 1 to Document 16(Add.6)-E] concerning Lebanon, and states its position that the ITU Plenipotentiary Conference is NOT the place to discuss and adopt proposals on matters of peace and border security. Israel further states that the Government of Lebanon has never filed any complaint to the Radiocommunication Bureau according to the Radio Regulations, which is the appropriate process in ITU to raise issues regarding interference or interruption to communication originating in another administration's jurisdiction. Israel finds that the resolution was indeed politically motivated and had no place in the PP-10 Conference. The Israeli delegation therefore disassociates from the decision adopting this Resolution and from the Resolution.

4. The Government of the State of Israel reserves the right to amend the foregoing reservations and declarations and to make any further reservations and declarations it may consider necessary up to the time of depositing its instrument of ratification of the Final Acts of the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010).

For the State of Israel:

Declaration No. 35 made by certain Member States in respect of the Final Acts, contravenes the principles and purposes of the International Telecommunication Union, and is therefore devoid of legal validity.

The Government of the State of Israel wishes to put on record that it rejects this aforesaid declaration, which politicizes and undermines the work of the ITU.

Should any Member State that has made the foregoing declaration act toward Israel in a manner which violates Israel's rights as a Member State of the ITU, or breaches such Member State's obligations toward Israel as such, the State of Israel reserves its right to act toward such a Member State in a reciprocal fashion.

For the United States of America:

1. The United States of America refers to declarations made by various Member States reserving their right to take such action as they may consider necessary to safeguard their interests with respect to application of provisions of the Constitution and Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), and any amendments thereto. The United States of America reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary to safeguard U.S. interests in response to such actions.

2. The United States of America, noting Statement 32 entered by the delegation of Cuba, recalls its right to broadcast to Cuba on appropriate frequencies free of jamming or other wrongful interference and reserves its rights with respect to existing interference and any future interference by Cuba with U.S. broadcasting. Furthermore, the United States of America notes that its presence in Guantanamo is by virtue of an international agreement presently in force and that the United States of America reserves the right to meet its radiocommunication requirements there as it has in the past.

For the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland:

The delegation of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland having noted all the reservations and declarations contained in Document 194 of 22 October 2010; declares on behalf of its Government, in response to Statement 20 entered by the delegation of the Argentine Republic, that the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland has no doubt about its sovereignty over the Falkland Islands, South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands and in this context draws attention to Article IV of the Antarctic Treaty to which both the United Kingdom and Argentina are parties. The United Kingdom firmly rejects the claim by the Government of Argentina to sovereignty over those islands and maritime areas.

The principle of self-determination, enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, underlies our position on the sovereignty of the Falkland Islands. There can be no negotiation on the sovereignty of the Falkland Islands unless and until such time as the Falkland Islands so wish. The Islanders regularly make it clear that they wish the Falkland Islands to remain under British sovereignty.

Akte van wijziging van het Statuut van de Internationale Unie voor Telecommunicatie (Genève, 1992) zoals gewijzigd door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Kyoto, 1994), door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Minneapolis, 1998), door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Marrakesh, 2002) en door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Antalya, 2006)

(Wijzigingen aangenomen door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Guadalajara, 2010))

Statuut van de Internationale Unie voor Telecommunicatie¹⁾ (Genève, 1992)

DEEL I

VOORWOORD

Krachtens en ter uitvoering van de desbetreffende bepalingen van het Statuut van de Internationale Unie voor Telecommunicatie (Genève, 1992), zoals gewijzigd door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Kyoto, 1994), door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Minneapolis, 1998), door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Marrakesh, 2002) en door de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie (Antalya, 2006), in het bijzonder die in artikel 55 ervan, heeft de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie van de Internationale Unie voor Telecommunicatie (Guadalajara, 2010) de volgende wijzigingen van het genoemde Statuut aangenomen:

OVERIGE BEPALINGEN BETREFFENDE HET FUNCTIONEREN VAN DE UNIE

Artikel 28

Financiën van de Unie

MOD 165 PP-98 5 Wanneer een Lidstaat zijn contributiekلاسe kiest, mag hij deze niet verlagen met meer dan 15 procent van het aantal eenheden dat door de Lidstaat is gekozen voor het tijdvak voorafgaande aan de vermindering, afgerond tot het dichtstbijzijnde lagere aantal eenheden in de schaal, voor bijdragen van drie of meer eenheden; of met meer dan één contributiekلاسe, voor bijdragen lager dan drie eenheden. De Raad geeft de Lidstaat aan hoe deze vermindering over het tijdvak tussen de Plenipotenciaire Conferenties geleidelijk moet worden gerealiseerd. In geval van uitzonderlijke omstandigheden, zoals natuurrampen waarvoor internationale hulpprogramma's nodig zijn, kan de Plenipotenciaire Conferentie evenwel een grotere verlaging van het aantal contributie-eenheden toestaan, wanneer een Lidstaat die heeft aangetoond dat hij zijn contributie niet langer in de oorspronkelijk gekozen klasse kan handhaven, daarom verzoekt

DEEL II

DATUM VAN INWERKINGTREDING

De in deze akte vervatte wijzigingen treden, als geheel en in de vorm van een enkele akte, in werking op 1 januari 2012 tussen de Lidstaten die op dat tijdstip partij zijn bij het Statuut en bij het Verdrag van de Internationale Unie voor Telecommunicatie (Genève, 1992), en die voor die datum hun akte van bekrachtiging, aanvaarding of goedkeuring van, of toetreding tot deze akte van wijziging hebben nedergelegd.

Verklaringen, voorbehouden en bezwaren

Nederlanden, het Koninkrijk der, 13 juni 1996

The Kingdom of the Netherlands reserves the right to take any action which it may consider necessary to safeguard its interests, should certain Members not share in defraying the expenses of the Union or should they fail in any other way to comply with the requirements of the Constitution and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992) as amended by the Kyoto instruments (1994) or their Annexes, or the Optional Protocol attached thereto, or should reservations by other countries be liable to cause an increase in its contributory shares in defraying Union expenses, or, finally, should reservations by other countries jeopardize its telecommunication services.

With regard to Article 54 of the Constitution of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992) as amended by the Kyoto instruments (1994), the Kingdom of the Netherlands maintains the reservations made when the Administrative Regulations mentioned in article 4 of the Constitution were signed.
