Op 6 en 27 augustus 1971 zijn te 's-Gravenhage tussen de Nederlandse en de Indiase Regering „letters of understanding” inzake de toepassing van het onderhavige Verdrag gewisseld.

De tekst van deze brieven luidt als volgt:

Nr. I

EMBASSY OF INDIA

The Hague

No. HAG/428/2/67

The Embassy of India presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands and has the honour, with reference to the recent conversations on the subject between the Embassy and the Ministry, to inform the latter that the Indian Government considers that the Treaty between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Kingdom of the Netherlands for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, signed in London on September 26, 1898, which Treaty created certain rights and obligations for India at a time when it was a territory under the sovereign jurisdiction of the United Kingdom, has continued without interruption to be binding upon India and the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

It would be appreciated if the Ministry would confirm that the foregoing is the understanding of the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The Embassy of India avails itself of the opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the assurances of its highest consideration.

August 6, 1971.
