The Director-General

G/LE-311/21(i)

21 March 1977

Sir,

I have the honour to give you below the text of arrangements between the United Nations and the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands (herein referred to as "the Government") in connexion with "the Seminar on Reforestation of Forests Destroyed by Storm and Fire of the Economic Commission for Europe", to be held, at the invitation of the Governments of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the Federal Republic of Germany and the Netherlands from 24 to 27 May 1977. This text covers the part of the Seminar to be held in the Province of Drenthe, the Netherlands on 26 and 27 May 1977.

"ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE KINGDOM OF THE NETHERLANDS REGARDING THE SEMINAR ON RE-FORESTATION OF FORESTS DESTROYED BY STORM AND FIRE OF THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE, TO BE HELD, AT THE INVITATION OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY AND THE KINGDOM OF THE NETHERLANDS IN THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY AND THE NETHERLANDS FROM 24 TO 27 MAY 1977. THIS TEXT COVERS THE PART OF THE SEMINAR TO BE HELD IN THE PROVINCE OF DRENTHE, THE NETHERLANDS, ON 26 AND 27 MAY 1977.

1. Participants in the Seminar will be invited by the Executive Secretary of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission and its subsidiary organs.
2. The Government shall impose no impediment to transit to and from the meetings of any persons whose presence at the Seminar is authorized by the United Nations and shall grant any visas required for such persons promptly and without charge. The Convention of 13 February 1946 on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations shall apply.
3. In accordance with paragraph 10 of resolution 2609 (XXIV), adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 16 December 1969, which provides that a Government issuing an invitation for a Meeting to be held within its territories agrees to defray the additional cost involved, the Government has agreed to reimburse to the United Nations the expenses in respect of travel, subsistence and terminal costs for United Nations Officials attending the Seminar, as well as air freight or excess baggage for any documents and equipment which may have to be carried from Geneva to the Netherlands and back.
4. The exact amount to be reimbursed by the Government will be determined by the United Nations and a documented statement will be sent to the Government for payment within three months.
5. The Government will provide for the Seminar adequate facilities including personnel resources, space and office supplies.
6. The Government shall be responsible for dealing with any actions, claims or other demands which may be brought against the United Nations for damages to facilities used in the course of the Seminar, for damage or injury to persons or property caused to third parties, or arising out of the employment of local personnel, and shall hold the United Nations and their officials harmless in respect of any such actions, claims or other demands.

7. The rooms, offices and related localities and facilities put at the disposal of the Seminar by the Government shall be the Meeting area, which shall constitute United Nations premises within the meaning of Article II, Section 3, of the Convention of 13 February 1946.

8. The Government shall notify the local police of the convening of the Seminar and request appropriate police protection."

I have the honour to propose that this letter and your affirmative answer shall constitute an agreement between the United Nations and the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands which shall enter into force on the date of your reply and shall remain in force for the duration of the Seminar and for such additional period as is necessary for its preparation and winding up, such period not to exceed one year.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.
