Behalve de aldaar genoemde hebben voorts nog de volgende Staten een akte van bekrachtiging nedergelegd bij de Secretaris-Generaal van de Raad van Europa:

het Verenigd Koninkrijk van Groot-Brittannië en Noord-Ierland ²⁾	29 augustus 1991
Tsjechoslowakije ³⁾	15 april 1992
Hongarije ⁴⁾	13 juli 1993

¹⁾ Zweden heeft op 11 mei 1992 de volgende wijziging aangebracht in de bij bekrachtiging gemaakte voorbehouden (voor de tekst van die voorbehouden zie Trb. 1969, 63, blz. 7-9).

Sweden withdraws its general reservation regarding Article 11 of the European Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters. When requests are submitted in accordance with Article 11, Sweden will require, by virtue of the reservation made with regard to Article 2, that the offence which the request refers to is a crime under Swedish law. The other reservations which Sweden has made with regard to Article 2 will not be applied where requests are submitted under Article 11. In view of what has been stated above, Sweden is prepared to give the assistance referred to in Article 11 to the following extent.

After a request has been submitted by a foreign state, a person in custody in Sweden may be transferred to the requesting state for a hearing or confrontation in connection with a preliminary investigation or trial, if the hearing or confrontation concerns matters other than the offences committed by the person in custody. Such a request is examined by the Government.

A request for transfer shall be rejected if the person in custody does not consent to transfer. A request may also be rejected,

1. if a transfer is liable to prolong the offender's detention,
2. if the presence of the person in custody is needed at criminal proceedings pending in Sweden,
3. if the offence referred to in the request is not a crime under Swedish law or if the offence is a political or military offence, or
4. if there are other overriding grounds for not transferring the person in custody.

The request shall contain details of

1. the name of the person in custody and his place of detention,
2. the criminal offence and the time and place of the offence,
3. what the hearing or confrontation will cover, and
4. how long the person in custody will need to be present in the foreign state.

The Minister of Justice may grant permission for the transportation through Sweden of a person in custody in a foreign state who is to be transferred to another state for a hearing or confrontation.

As regards the way in which a request for transfer or transportation of a person in custody is to be presented we refer to Sweden's declaration under Article 15 item 6 of the Convention.
