1. The privileges, immunities and facilities provided for in Articles 16, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, and 24 of this Agreement are granted in the interests of the Mechanism and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves.

2. The Secretary-General shall have the right and duty to waive the immunity granted under this Agreement of any person in any case where, in his opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Mechanism.

The immunity provided for in this Article shall cease when the person, having been acquitted, released or is otherwise no longer required by the Mechanism and having had for a period of fifteen (15) consecutive days from that date an opportunity of leaving, has nevertheless remained in the territory of the host State, or having left it, has returned.

PART VI

FINAL PROVISIONS

Settlement of disputes with third parties

The Mechanism shall make provisions for appropriate modes of settlement of:

- a) disputes arising out of contracts and other disputes of a private law character to which the Mechanism is a party; and
- b) disputes involving any person referred to in this Agreement who, by reason of his or her official position or function in connection with the Mechanism, enjoys immunity, if such immunity has not been waived by the Secretary-General.

Article 44

Settlement of differences on the interpretation or application of this Agreement or supplementary arrangements or agreements

1. All differences arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement or supplementary arrangements or agreements between the Parties shall be settled by consultation, negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement.

3. This Agreement shall cease to be in force by mutual consent of the Parties, if the seat of the Mechanism is removed from the territory of the host State or if the Mechanism is dissolved, except for such provisions as may be applicable in connection with the orderly termination of the operations of the Mechanism at its seat in the host State and the disposition of its property therein, as well as provisions granting immunity from legal process of every kind in respect of words spoken or written or all acts performed in an official capacity under this Agreement.

Article 47

Interpretation of agreements

The provisions of this Agreement shall be complementary to the provisions of the General Convention and the Vienna Convention, the latter Convention only insofar as it is relevant for the diplomatic privileges, immunities and facilities accorded to the appropriate categories of persons referred to in this Agreement. Insofar as any provision of this Agreement and any provisions of the General Convention and the Vienna Convention relate to the same subject matter, each of these provisions shall be applicable and neither shall narrow the effect of the other.

Article 48

Entry into force

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the second month after both Parties have notified each other in writing that the legal requirements for entry into force have been complied with.
2. Upon entry into force of this Agreement, the Agreement Concerning the Headquarters of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 signed on 29 July 1994 and the Agreement Regarding the Applicability of the Headquarters Agreement of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia to the activities and proceedings of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda in the territory of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, 22 and 24 April 1996, and any respective supplementary agreements the contents of which have been addressed by this Agreement, shall terminate and this Agreement shall apply mutatis mutandis to the ICTY and ICTR.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized thereto, have signed this Agreement.

DONE at New York on the 23rd day of February in the year Two Thousand and Fifteen, in duplicate, in the English language.

For the United Nations,

Nr. I

PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF THE KINGDOM OF THE NETHERLANDS TO THE UNITED NATIONS IN NEW YORK

New York, February 23, 2015

On the occasion of the signing of the Agreement between the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the United Nations concerning the Headquarters of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals, I would like to refer to the discussions held between representatives of the United Nations and the Kingdom of the Netherlands concerning the interpretation of certain provisions of the Agreement.

I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of the Netherlands the following understandings.

Without prejudice to the rules and regulations of the Mechanism, it is the understanding of the Parties that the following persons will, for the purposes of this Agreement, and this Agreement only, be considered as members of their family forming part of the household of the judges, the Prosecutor, the Registrar, staff of the Mechanism and defence counsel:

- a) spouses or registered partners of the judges, the Prosecutor, the Registrar, staff of the Mechanism and defence counsel;
- b) children of the judges, the Prosecutor, the Registrar, staff of the Mechanism and defence counsel who are under the age of 18;
- c) children of the judges, the Prosecutor, the Registrar, staff of the Mechanism and defence counsel, aged 18 or over, but not older than 27, provided that they formed part of the household prior to their first entry into the host State and still form part of this household, and that they are unmarried, financially dependent on the judge, Prosecutor, Registrar, member of the staff of the Mechanism or defence counsel concerned and are attending an educational institution in the host State;
- d) children of the judges, the Prosecutor, the Registrar, staff of the Mechanism and defence counsel aged 18 or over, but not older than 23, will also be recognized as members of their family forming part of the household if they are not studying as long as they are unmarried and financially dependent on the judge, Prosecutor, Registrar or member of the staff of the Mechanism or defence counsel concerned;
- e) other persons who, in exceptional cases or for humanitarian reasons, the Mechanism and the host State decide to treat as members of their family forming part of the household.

With respect to Article 16, paragraph 1, it is the understanding of the Parties that with respect to judges of the Mechanism, "when engaged on the business of the Mechanism" includes not only when a judge is activated for duty from a roster, but also includes when a judge performs functions for the Mechanism, such as attending a plenary meeting, that may not require activation of the judge from the roster. The United Nations will determine when a judge is "engaged on the business of the Mechanism".

With respect to Article 16, paragraph 5, it is the understanding of the Parties that nothing in this provision precludes the Mechanism from exercising its rights under Article 46, paragraph 2.

With respect to Article 21, subparagraph 2(d), it is the understanding of the Parties that this prohibition does not apply to fellows who are sponsored by other international organizations or states and who perform functions as staff members though they are not formally recruited as such, so long as they are at the Mechanism for a period longer than six (6) months.

With respect to Article 23, paragraph 6, it is the understanding of the Parties that in regard to relocation of witnesses who for security reasons cannot return to their home countries or their countries of permanent residence after appearing or testifying before the Mechanism, the Mechanism relies on the cooperation by third States.

With respect to Article 28, paragraph 2, it is furthermore the understanding of the Parties that in exceptional cases and on an ad-hoc basis, the host State may, by the reasoned request of the Mechanism, issue an identity card to a person required to be at the seat of the Mechanism for an extended period of time, but who is not entitled to an identity card under this Agreement.

With respect to Article 46, paragraph 2, it is the understanding of the Parties that the host State shall provide persuasive reasons for not according to the Mechanism the same treatment as accorded to other comparable international organizations or tribunals when that treatment is considered by the Mechanism to be more favourable.

I should be grateful if you could confirm on behalf of the United Nations that the above is also the understanding of the United Nations.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
